

ARKANSAS COURT OF APPEALS

DIVISION I
No. CACR07-395

CORRIE DERELL THOMAS
APPELLANT

V.

STATE OF ARKANSAS
APPELLEE

Opinion Delivered January 14, 2009

APPEAL FROM THE MISSISSIPPI
COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT,
OSCEOLA DISTRICT
[NOS. CR-01-20 AND CR-05-218]

HONORABLE DAVID BURNETT, JUDGE

AFFIRMED; MOTION TO WITHDRAW GRANTED

JOHN MAUZY PITTMAN, Judge

Corrie Derell Thomas previously pled guilty to possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver and first-degree false imprisonment. In each case, he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment to be followed by a period of suspended imposition as to an additional term. The suspensions were subject to various conditions of good behavior. In 2006, the State filed a petition to revoke appellant's suspended sentences. After a hearing, the trial court found that appellant had violated the conditions of his suspensions by committing the offenses of battery and terroristic threatening. The court revoked the suspensions and sentenced appellant to concurrent terms of ten years in the Arkansas Department of Correction.

Pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), and Ark. Sup. Ct. R. 4-3(j), appellant's counsel has filed a motion to withdraw on grounds that the appeal is wholly without merit. The motion is accompanied by an abstract, addendum, and brief containing a list of the objections and motions decided adversely to appellant and an explanation of why there is nothing in the record that would support an appeal. The clerk of this court provided appellant with a copy of his counsel's brief and notified him of his right to file a pro se statement of points for reversal within thirty days. Appellant did not file a statement.

From our review of the record and the brief presented to us, we find compliance with Rule 4-3(j) and that the appeal is wholly without merit. Accordingly, counsel's motion to withdraw is granted, and the order of revocation is affirmed.

GLADWIN and GLOVER, JJ., agree.
